

Infinite Waters:

Diving Deep Into Conversations About Person Centered Practices

NorCal Gathering March 21-22, 2018

Special Guests Include:

Mary Lou Bourne, Director of NCI and Quality Assurance NASDDDS

Michael Smull, Senior Partner, Support Development Associates, LLC

Petaluma Community Center

320 N. McDowell Blvd.

Petaluma, CA 94954

707.778.4380

Join us for the third NorCal Gathering. We'll be learning and sharing experiences and information about creating and supporting person centered systems, organizations and services through the implementation of person-centered practices.

Conference Conversations:

CMS Changes and Measuring Progress Towards Implementing Person Centered Practices

Speaker: Mary Lou Bourne Respondent: Michael Smull Q and A

The Power and Challenge of Implementing Change Tomorrow

Speaker: Michael Smull Respondent: Mary Lou Bourne Q and A

Work, Friendships and Control

Speaker: Mary Lou Bourne Respondent: Michael Smull Q and A

Let's Talk About Choice

Speaker: Michael Smull Respondent: Mary Lou Bourne Q and A

Break-Out and General Session Conversations Include: Introduction to the Person Centered Thinking Skills; Person Centered Practices and Cultural Diversity; Film Festival; Ideas for Implementing and Evaluating Our Efforts; New Skills in Person Centered Thinking and Planning; Community and Relationship Building; and, Community of Practice for California Organizations. An Open Marketplace process will be used to determine additional topics. Bring your ideas of what you would like to learn and what you have to share.

Registration: Cost is $175 per person. Includes lunch both days, materials, coffee and snacks. Registration at brownpapertickets.com starting 1/15/18 under NorCal Gathering of The Learning Community. For registration by mail, contact Chrissy at crotermundnorthstar@icloud.com. Hotel information will be emailed to registrants.