What's this all about? Your answers to these questions can help you put together a transition plan. A plan to help you reach the best possible future.

The questions are written in the first person, so that the focus is always on you, the person in transition. You can use this in several ways: (1) you can fill it out by yourself; (2) someone can ask you the questions and write down your answers; (3) you can work on it with a teacher, counselor, or someone else; or (4) family and friends can help you with it.

When you work on it with other people and they give you ideas for your plan, make sure you put their initials next to their ideas. That way, you will remember what you said and what others said.

1. Who is this about?

2. What are some great things about you?
